As Director here at ICL I'm fortunate to have the opportunity to meet myriad people, folks with diverse backgrounds, fascinating stories and interests. It is one of the many pleasures of living and working in Ignacio. Each year I am struck with what a unique treasure this community is and I am filled with hope for our future as we continue to work to improve life here for all of our citizens. Here at Ignacio Community Library the staff and I believe we have a special role in helping our community members have access to the information they need, whether in print, digital or with programs. We trust that you feel comfortable letting us know what programs and materials you would like us to offer so that we can continue to meet the information needs of our community.

I hope you will join with me this coming year in appreciating and expressing gratitude to our neighbor, supporting and encouraging each other, building community and connection along the way.

Thank you volunteers!

Ignacio is a giving community as witnessed through the food and toys donated during this past holiday season. ICL is often on the receiving end of this generosity as our wonderful volunteers prove. The staff at ICL would like to thank our volunteers: Jean McClanahan, Judy Bundy, JoAnn Sanderfer, Rosemarie Aiken, Pat Knight, and Burt Baldwin, The Friends of the Ignacio Library board members: Pat Knight, Jan Chopra, Jan Saunders, Kate Lehman, Bruce & Patti Clark, and our Board of Trustees current members: Dayna Talamante-Montoya, Lovvis Downs-Glass, Clark Craig, Pearl Casias and Lisa Ruybal, as well as past trustee Philip Meunier. These folks give endlessly of their time and energy to ensure that the library continues to serve the community well. If you see these folks around town, give them a heartfelt thanks!

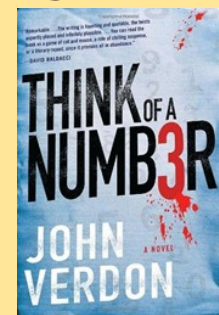

Lunch with an Author

On Thursday January 3 at noon we welcome Brooke Smith, author of The Mango Tree, a story about a tree who grows while discovering inspiration from within, but also from the surrounding world. Brooke will be with us for lunch and a special Storytime, so bring the family and enjoy!

Join us this month January 10 and 24 @ 4:00 as we read our book of the month

Thanks Pat Knight!

Ignacio has a dynamic and engaging library in part due to the members of this community that support their library in many ways, including volunteering and donating time, funds, materials and equipment.

One such community member is Pat Knight. Pat is not only a major force for the Friends of the Ignacio Community Library, she also coordinates the art group and shares her wealth of knowledge and experience with all who are seeking to improve their art skills.

Pat also recently donated a high-quality professional backdrop for photography to the library's IDEALAB. This backdrop can be used for "green screen" backgrounds or to create a seamless backdrop to take pictures of larger items to prepare for sale listings. Thank you Pat, we appreciate you!

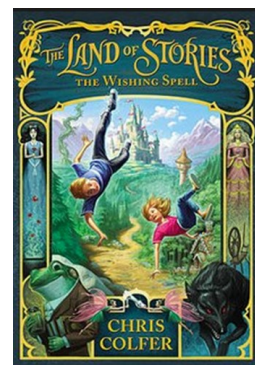

Art Class

Learn the techniques to draw anything you want! Come to Art Class Tuesdays @ 10:00 a.m. where we will begin with the basics and advance to drawing still life and life drawing. Sign up is required.

Inklings

Kids grades 3-5 who have an interest in good reads and snacks, we have a club for you...

Inklings Book Club! Come meet with us on Tuesdays @ 4:00 p.m. this January for our book of the month The Land of Stories.

Character Counts Person of the Month

Ignacio is a Character Counts community, meaning we strive to support those who represent the six pillars: Trustworthiness, Respect, Responsibility, Fairness, Caring and Citizenship. To recognize a community member who represents one or more of these pillars, nominate them via our website. One person is selected each month by the Multi Cultural Committee, which is made up of members of various organizations throughout Ignacio. Help support these values by recognizing people whose actions demonstrate these characteristics.

Book Launch & Zen Talk

January 26 @ 1:00 p.m.

Local author and Zen Buddhist teacher, Alaric Hutchinson, will be launching his new book entitled "Living Peace: Essential Teachings for Enlightenment in the 21st Century" and speaking about how to better cultivate inner peace in everyday life.

A book signing will follow—snacks and beverages will be provided.
