Exciting news, we're thrilled to announce that at Teen Night this month kids will have the opportunity to express their creativity by crafting their clay sculptures, drawing inspiration from their surroundings, or their unique imaginations. We'll be having Pigs in Blankets for dinner!

Kids must be picked up by 7:45 p.m. please.

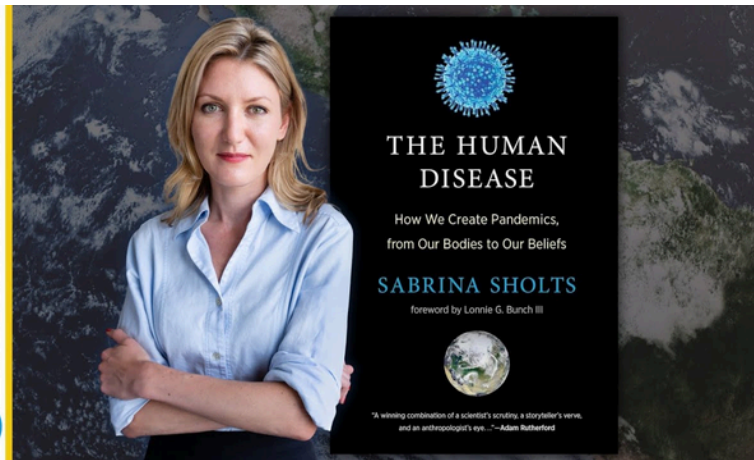

Thank you so much to Southern Ute Shared Services for the valuable partnership! SUSS has provided nine brand-new desktop computers and one laptop for public use, as well as two technicians who are helping with this massive installation. The library has also purchased six new workstations; so, together we are completing a 100% refresh of the public computers throughout the library. Keep your eyes peeled over the next weeks as these beautiful workstations gradually become available for public use.

ONLINE AUTHOR TALKS

Tune in to discover new insights and perspectives! Plus, catch up on previously broadcast author talks on our website, ignaciolibrary.org, under the ONLINE LIBRARY TAB.

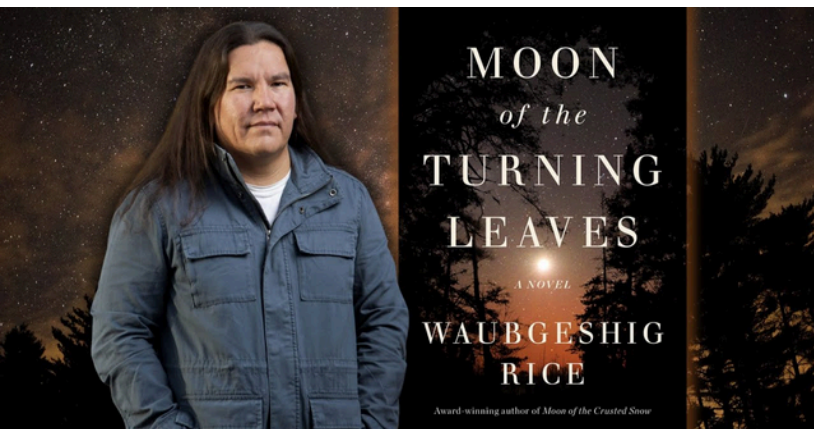

Smithsonian

Sabrina Sholts | Tuesday, February 4 at 12:00 p.m.

Join us for this enlightening presentation with Smithsonian curator Sabrina Sholts as she talks about how the very fact of being human increases our pandemic risks—and gives us the power to save ourselves.

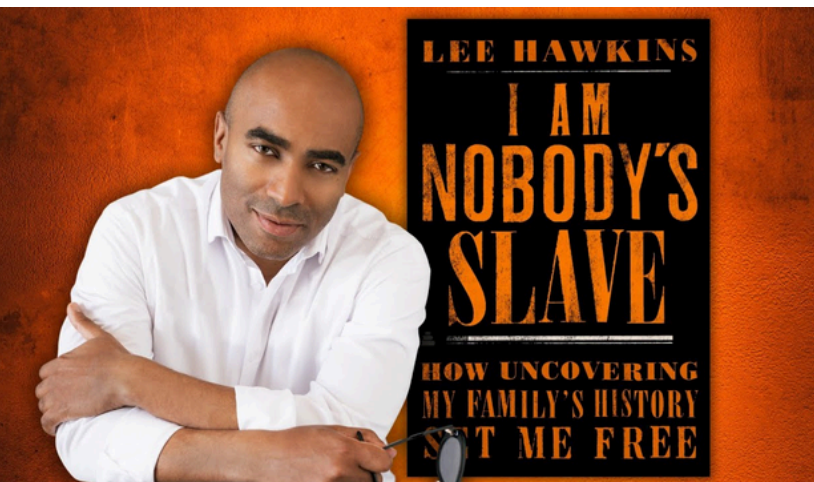

The COVID-19 pandemic won't be our last—That is the uncomfortable but all-too-timely message of The Human Disease: How We Create Pandemics, From Our Bodies to Our Beliefs, which travels through history and around the globe to examine how and why pandemics are an inescapable threat of our own making.

Waubgeshig Rice | Tuesday, February 11 at 5:00 p.m.

You're invited to a riveting conversation with bestselling author Waubgeshig Rice to chat about his newest book Moon of the Turning Leaves, the hotly anticipated sequel to the bestselling novel Moon of the Crusted Snow.

Moon of the Turning Leaves is Rice's exhilarating return to the world first explored in the phenomenal breakout bestseller Moon of the Crusted Snow: a brooding story of survival, resilience, Indigenous identity, and rebirth. Register now for a thrilling conversation!

Lee Hawkins | Tuesday, February 18 at 12:00 p.m.

We welcome you to our conversation with journalist and author Lee Hawkins as he talks to us about the examination of his family's legacy of post-enslavement trauma and resilience in this riveting memoir, I Am Nobody's Slave: How Uncovering My Family's History Set Me Free.

I Am Nobody's Slave tells the story of one Black family's pursuit of the American Dream through the impacts of systemic racism and racial violence. This book examines how trauma from enslavement and Jim Crow shaped their outlook on thriving in America, influenced each generation, and how they succeeded despite these challenges.

Book Suggestion!

The Secretary by Renee Knight

"Renée Knight follows up her international sensation Disclaimer with this shivery tale of psychological suspense, featuring a character as disturbing and compelling as Mrs. Danvers in Daphne Du Maurier's Rebecca. From her first day as Personal Assistant to the celebrated Mina Appleton, Christine Butcher understands what is expected of her. Absolute loyalty. Absolute discretion. For twenty years, Christine has been a most devoted servant, a silent witness to everything in Mina's life. So quiet, you would hardly know she is there. Day after day, year after year, Christine has been there, invisible—watching, listening, absorbing all the secrets floating around her. Keeping them safe. Christine is trusted. But those years of loyalty and discretion come with a high price. And eventually, Christina will pay. Yet, it would be a mistake to underestimate such a steadfast woman. Because as everyone is about to discover, there's a dangerous line between obedience and obsession." - Good reads
